Comprehension Strategies	Helpful Prompts	Comments/Assessment
Self-monitoring - checks personal strategy use - changes strategy use	 Did that part of the book make sense to you? What question are you asking yourself about? Did you get an answer to your question when you read on? Did you change your mind?
Analyzing - finds facts - finds a main idea (if stated) - finds supporting details - recognizes problem/solution	 Where does it say that? What else does it say about? Can you show me where it says that?
Sequencing - understands sequence of directions - retells in sequence (events, facts, arguments, details)	 Tell me what happened. What came first? In what order did it happen?
Making connections - connects ideas to self, others, other texts, and knowledge about the world - compares and contrasts facts, events, or ideas	 Have you heard of (seen/read about) something like this? Has this happened to you or somebody you know? Does this remind you of something? Is this the same? Is this different? How do you know?
Predicting - makes predictions about characters and plot (fiction) - makes predictions about what information will come next (non-fiction) - confirms or changes predictions	 What might happen next? What do you think the next chapter will be about? Did what you expect to happen? Did you change your mind about what was going to happen?
Inferring - reads between the lines - visualizes what is happening in the text - infers solution to the problem - understands cause and effect	 Why did that happen? Can you picture that in your mind? What's the problem here? How do you think it will be solved? What caused that?
Evaluating - understands the difference between fiction and non-fiction and between opinion and fact - gives personal opinions about events, facts, and ideas - evaluates the author's craft and bias	 Is this book telling us a story, or does it give us facts? Is this true or is this opinion? What do you believe? How did the author get us to believe that? What does the author think about?
Synthesizing - summarizes to provide a brief account - finds the main idea (if not stated) - connects facts, events, and ideas into a cohesive whole - integrates information with prior knowledge to create new understanding	 What are the main things you found out about? What's the book about? What did the title tell us? What's the most important thing you learned?
